DESCRIPTION

Community groups are invited to be a part of the market. We allocate one space at each market to be used free of charge by community groups wishing to inform the public about their activities. Community groups should carefully read the Guidelines.

Please describe your group:

What do you hope to achieve by being at the market?

AVAILABILITY

Check here if you are available for all markets, otherwise, tell us about your availability in the space below.
Markets in the summer are Thursdays from 3-7. Winter markets are once a month on Saturday from 10-2.
